

Population:
4,553,009 (July 2007 est.)

Location:
Southeastern Asia, islands between Malaysia and Indonesia

Singapore

COUNTRY: Singapore

Project: Feasibility Study for Electronic Services Delivery Program
Year: 2005
Client: ORACLE Corporation, Asia Pacific
Role: Management Consultant – Subject Matter Expert - Secured Transactions Registry Reform
Description: Consultant, subject matter expert, principal author and team lead for the development of an internal business case for a citizen registry software solution framework and application.
 The Citizen Registry Business Case was undertaken by Oracle’s Business Development Group in the Asia Pacific region, and supported by internal Information Technology specialists.

More Information

Oracle Briefing.
Transforming Government:
<http://www.pstm.net/pdf/134069ORACLE%2017.05.06.pdf>

Oracles R&D focus in the Asia Pacific region, related to e-government solutions.
<http://www.manilatimes.net/national/2007/7/july/25/yehey/tech3.htm>

The scope of work included:

- an overview of the current market environment related to Secured Transaction Registry reform within the Asia Pacific region
- a market opportunity analysis
- estimated investment and IT development requirements
- domain knowledge transfer
- advice on market positioning
- related financial metrics.

Activities included internal meetings with stakeholders and practices to provide insight and knowledge transfer in the subject area, meetings with local consultant specialists in multilateral development bank projects, and international industry advisors.

Deliverables included:

- Internal – Citizen Registry Business Case
- Executive Management Presentation
- Knowledge Transfer Presentation

This work was carried out at Oracle’s offices in Singapore.